Your Short Story - 500 Words or Less (you can come back and submit as many as you like, just one story per session): My first Tully trip in 81 I was as Forward Scout for the lead Platoon and just as we had crested Heart Break I looked back to check with my Section Commander E B Jones, as I had my head turned Warry George steps out from behind a Buttress tree and smacks me fair on my hand on the fore stock with his DS Stick. In shock and pain I removed my hand from the weapon and was shaking it when he hits my master hand on the pistol grip yelling get hold of your weapon dig, at this point I dropped my M16 and was riving in pain with him yelling don't drop your weapon and beating me like that scene in the Blue's Brother with the Nun. The only thing that stopped him was EB Jones taking over the job of abusing me. I now not only have fond memories but arthritis in both hands, such great times we had.
